Interviews with five people working globally, at least three in English.
Can be in-person or online. Whether you interview in English or Japanese, please complete the worksheet in English.

[Contents of interview]

Interview participants about cultural difference episodes they have experienced in their home country or the country in which they have spent the most time, and in the place where they have worked. Record what you hear on a separate worksheet.

- When you interview, please also ask
 - Who are the characters in the stories?
 - Who did or said what?
- Key points
 - Listen attentively.
 - Distinguish the facts from the interviewee's assumptions. If there are any assumptions, please use different font colour in the worksheet.

Please make notes about the interview here:

Please replace actual names and company names with fictitious ones (remove any information that might make someone identifiable)

- Characters and their position and role in this story; location
- Background information such as industry and circumstances
- Story (If there are any assumptions, please use different font colour)
- Point of cultural difference
